Beginning in 2025, CBWOQ membership will be maintained on an annual term basis from February 1, the applicable year, to January 31, the following year. Registration for membership is open between October 15 of the current year and January 15 of the following year. Members must meet the qualifications below, including submitting a completed registration form for membership and/or membership renewal.

All members agree to further CBWOQ's purposes, as well as agree to abide by the provisions in its articles, by-laws and policies (link to new website page with By-law, articles and policies).
